Title: Public School Employees Retirement System; permit certain persons to make an irrevocable election to become member of Teachers Retirement System of Georgia

Current Status: Introduced

Introduction Date: February 09, 2023

Last Action Date: House Hopper. February 09, 2023

Summary: This bill allows eligible Public School Employees Retirement System (PSERS) members to elect membership into the Teachers Retirement System of Georgia (TRS). In order to be eligible, such PSERS members must, on or after September 2, 2024, become a permanent status employee not employed less than half time, at which point such member may make a one-time irrevocable election to become a member of TRS. Such election must be made within ten (10) days after becoming employed, and PSERS members who make the election to become members of TRS will no longer be PSERS members or be eligible to transfer any PSERS creditable service to TRS. It is the duty of the individual employer to notify eligible individuals who become employed of such election of PSERS and TRS membership, along with providing all necessary forms. Additionally, contributing PSERS members as of September 1, 2024 who have permanent status and are not employed less than half time shall have the option to make an irrevocable election to become a TRS member. Upon election, such individual will not be a PSERS member and will not be permitted to transfer any PSERS creditable service to TRS. PSERS members with ten (10) or more years of PSERS creditable service who elect to become TRS members can either withdraw their contributions from PSERS and cease to be a PSERS member or allow their accumulated contributions to remain in PSERS and will remain a vested PSERS member, provided, however, that such members does not continue making PSERS contributions and does not accrue additional creditable service in PSERS. PSERS member with less than ten (10) years of creditable service must withdraw their accumulated contributions from PSERS and will not be considered a PSERS member. This legislation would become effect July 1, 2024. This bill is in the Hopper on 2/10 and will be referred to committee on 2/13.

Description: A BILL to be entitled an Act to amend Title 47 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to retirement and pensions, so as to permit certain persons who would otherwise be required to be members of the Public School Employees Retirement System to make an irrevocable election to become members of the Teachers Retirement System of Georgia; to provide for conditions; to prohibit transfers of creditable service; to provide for related matters; to provide conditions for an effective date and automatic repeal; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

Title: Ad Valorem Taxation; state revenue commissioner to contract with the board of the Employees' Retirement System of Georgia to offer certain county tax commissioners the option to participate in a state administered deferred compensation plan; require

Introduction Date: February 01, 2023

Last Action Date: Senate Committee Favorably Reported By Substitute. February 09, 2023

Summary: This bill authorizes the State Revenue Commissioner to contract with the Employees' Retirement System of Georgia (ERSGA) for the administration of a deferred compensation plan for "eligible county tax commissioners," where such term is defined in the legislation. In accordance with such contract, ERGSA shall investigate and approve a deferred compensation plan which: (1) Offers income tax benefits in connection with plans authorized by United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986; (2) Does not include compensation deferred under such plan for the purposes of computation of any federal income tax withheld on behalf of or payable by any such individual before any deferred payment date; and (3) Exempts all contributions to such deferred compensation plan from State withholding tax, so long as such contributions are not includable in gross income for federal income tax purposes. In addition to the above deferred compensation plan requirements, ERGSA is also authorized to include, as an option, for "eligible county tax commissioners" a qualified ROTH contribution program in accordance with Section 402A of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986. On or after July 1, 2023, any "eligible county tax commissioner" who contributes a percentage of their minimum annual salary paid by the county according to O.C.G.A. § 48-5-183(b)(1) and (2) into the deferred compensation plan, the State shall contribute an equal amount up to five percent (5%), with the State contributions being subject to federal law limitations. Each "eligible county tax commissioner" can make additional contributions to their deferred compensation accounts, which will also be subject to federal law limitations. This legislation also authorizes both the Board of ERGSA and the State Revenue Commissioner to impose withholding and remittance of contribution requirements by county governing authorities in order to carry out this Code section and comply with state and federal law. This bill passed by substitute in the Senate Finance Committee on 2/8, and will be reported out of Committee on 2/9, at which point it will be in Senate Rules Committee.

Description: A BILL to be entitled an Act to amend Chapter 5 of Title 48 of the O.C.G.A., relating to ad valorem taxation, so as to require the state revenue commissioner to contract with the board of the Employees' Retirement System of Georgia to offer certain county tax commissioners the option to participate in a state administered deferred compensation plan; to provide for effective dates and applicability; to provide for nonseverability; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.
