

LARGE CAP CORE STOCK INDEX FUND

Fund Objective

The Fund seeks to track the performance of the S&P 500 Index by investing in stocks that make up the index.

Fund Composition

The Fund invests in stocks in the S&P 500 Index. The S&P 500 Index, considered a large-capitalization benchmark, is comprised of a sample of leading industries and accounts for more than 75% of the market value of all publically traded stocks in the US.

Investor Profile

Investing in large-capitalization stocks is the most efficient way to participate in earnings from large US companies. These stocks have the potential for more stable earnings than that of small- or mid-capitalization stocks, and their prices tend to be less volatile. This fund is intended for long-term investors seeking to capture the earnings and growth potential of large US companies.

Fund Risks

The performance of the Fund depends on the value of its holdings. Stock values may vary from day to day in response to individual companies and general market and economic conditions. In the short and intermediate term, stock values may be volatile and a loss of principal may occur. Over the long term, however, they have the potential for higher returns than bond or money market investments.
