

Rehired Retiree Reporting Form

O.C.G.A. § 47-2-110(b)(4) (ERS), O.C.G.A. § 47-23-109(c) (JRS), and O.C.G.A. § 47-6-84(d) (LRS) requires employers to notify the Employees' Retirement System of Georgia of any employees who have been hired subsequent to retirement from the Employees' Retirement System, Judicial Retirement System, and Legislative Retirement System, respectively. If a rehired retiree exceeds the annual 1,040 hour work limitation, the employer must reimburse ERSGA for any benefits wrongfully paid in the event the employer has failed to notify ERSGA of the rehired employee's status. It is the duty of the retired plan member seeking employment to notify the employer of his or her retirement status prior to accepting employment. If a rehired retiree fails to notify the employer and the employer becomes liable to the retirement system, the plan member shall hold the employer harmless for all such liability.

In addition, O.C.G.A. § 47 -2-110 (a)(1)(B) (ERS) requires employers to certify to ERSGA that no agreement existed prior to retirement between the employer and the retiree to allow the retiree to return to service.
